

IT HAPPENS TO ALL OF US

By Sharon Cheek

(Verse 1) She was slightly mean,
This almost teen
With pricey and tight
designer jeans
Without a care
Wrapped her legs around a chair
When suddenly
The precious fibers split.....
And she felt like the whole world stared

(Pre-Chorus) It's embarrassing, so embarrassing
She wants to hide her face
She can't stand the disgrace
She feels so alone, embarrassed to the bone
but wait....

(Chorus) It happens to all of us
Happens to all of us, happens to all of us, happens to all of us sometimes
Brush it off, laugh it off
Drag it off, cast it off
Happens to all of us.

(Verse 2) It was shimmery,
this gallery
With fragile art defying gravity
He starred at some glass
On the field trip for his class
When suddenly
It shattered to the floor— —
And he felt the room stare en mass

(Pre-Chorus) It's embarrassing, so embarrassing
He wants to hide his face
He can't stand the disgrace
He feels so alone,
embarrassed to the bone
but wait....

(Chorus) It happens to all of us
Happens to all of us,
Happens to all of us sometime
Brush it off, laugh it off
Drag it off, cast it off
Happens to all of us

(Verse 3) It's just a bubble
That gives him trouble With squeezing muscles that strain and struggle
But the awful air
Still descends to his chair
When suddenly (fart noise)
He feels the room laugh and stare

(Bridge) What can he do?
He can't run
He can't hide
And he feels so ashamed
That he's shaking inside
It's hard to remember
This little known fact:

He can change his bad feelings
By how he reacts
He'll change his feelings
By how he reacts.... (laughs)
Because----

(Chorus) It happens to all of us,
Happens to all of us
Happens to all of us----sometime
Brush it off, laugh it off
Brush it off, laugh it off
Brush it off, laugh it off
Drag it off, cast it off
Happens to all of us.
